

local news

This is a benchmark project. Local government in this country is going through a phase of change. There is a process happening, right now, which is all about what the expectations and delivery of local government means. It's to do with professionalism and it's to do with progress, and it's to do with pride, and it's to do with purpose.